'tis the Season

It is already past mid-December, we have had our first big snowfall of the year (and cancellation of Sunday services), and Christmas is knocking at the door. If you don't have those gifts for "family far-flung" packaged and in the mail, you are likely too late for a pre-Christmas delivery. If you are all-Grinched-out and a bit tired of hearing Bing Crosby's version of "White Christmas" (say it ain't so!), and cannot take watching one more Christmas special, may I suggest a remedy: time to start making your New Year's Resolutions! That's right! The year 2026 is less than two weeks away from making its grand entrance. It is time to take stock of where one is materially, socially, physically, and spiritually – to see what changes might be helpful going forward – and develop a plan to make "2026 the year!" – to make those changes you have been promising yourself to make the last 20 or so New Years.

Far be it for me to be the one to suggest what changes any of you might make. (I have to contend with my own long-list of perennial unfulfilled New Year's resolutions.) What I am willing to do as the "spiritual leader" of the congregation, is to offer some guidance for your New Year's devotional study.

Typically devotionals this time of year focus on themes of fresh starts, letting go of the past while embracing God's new mercies, encouraging reflection on previous growth and future hope. Key ideas include – trusting God's faithfulness, embracing the unknown with faith, a call to spiritual growth, and living out one's faith in clear identifiable ways.

Key Devotional Themes & Scripture

- A Fresh Start in Christ: The New Year symbolizes new life in Jesus; "old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new" (2 Corinthians 5:17).
- Trusting God's Guidance: Rely on God's lead, even when the path isn't clear, like taking the first step in faith (Psalm 25:5).
- Letting Go of the Past: Release burdens, failures, and grudges; God offers fresh mercies and transforms barren places (Lamentations 3:22-23).
- God's Promises: Trust that God has good intentions for you, bringing hope and a future (Jeremiah 29:11).
- Shining Your Light: Live purposefully and hold fast to God's word, being a light in a darkening world (Philippians 2:15-16).

Reflective Questions for a New Year

- Where have you seen God's faithfulness in the past year?
- What old habits or mindsets do you need to release to embrace God's new work?
- How can you allow God to reshape your heart, not just your habits?
- What small steps of faith can you take, trusting God to light the path?
- How can you grow in grace and knowledge of the teachings of Jesus this year?

OK, I have probably given you much too much to consider. Do not be overwhelmed. Pick three themes and/or questions that strike you to be the most relevant. Start there and see where it takes you. Know that I wish you and all your loved ones the Merriest of Christmases, and the happiest of New Years.

Pastor Frank

Adult Sunday School Class

Beginning after Christmas Joan will be leading a study of 42 chapters of the Book of Job, looking at a few chapters each week. We meet for 30 minutes on Sunday mornings at 9:20 in the library. Stop by the parlor and bring your coffee and snack along to class.

Something to sing as you gather with friends and family during this most Holy season:

One Candle Is Lit: (Words: Mary Anne Parrott; Music: William J Kirkpatrick)

Come surely, Lord Jesus, as dawn follows night, our hearts long to greet you as roses, the light.
Salvation, draw near us, our vision engage.
One candle is lit for the hope of the age.

Come quickly, Shalom, teach us how to prepare for a gift that compels us with justice to care.
Our spirits are restless till sin and war cease.
One candle is lit for the reign of God's peace.

Come, festively singing while awaiting the birth,
join angels in dancing from heaven to earth.
Wave banners of good news, lift high thankful praise,
One candle is lit for the joy of these days!

Come wander where lion and lamb gently play,
where evil is banished and faith takes the day,
a babe in a manger to fool the world's eyes.
One candle is lit for God's loving surprise!

Come, listen, the sounds of God-with-us ring clear,
and signs of a Cross in the distance appear.
The Word once made flesh, yet the Word ever near.
One candle is lit for the Christ birthday here.

Huddle inside and have a good read!

I Bring You Glad Tidings by Rosemarie Ellen Guiley. Discover how everyday people have been blessed by angels, and how their experiences have transformed them -- heart, mind, and soul. Bestselling author Rosemary Ellen Guiley has woven a stunning tapestry of Christmas angel stories -- each one a unique testament to the triumph of the human spirit, and a dazzling reflection of how angels work in our lives each day, and in unseen ways.

A Covington Christmas by Joan Medlicott. The new pastor at the Cove Road Church in Covington discovers that a former pastor from forty years ago was never ordained as a minister, and was therefore not qualified to marry anyone—which means that five longstanding marriages are invalid! With their marriages thrown into crisis, it's decided that the couples absolutely must remarry on Christmas Eve. But with the church desperately in need of repairs and lacking the funds to fix the rotting floorboards and the outdated heating system, how can they ever get it ready in time? Brimming with warmth, charm, and the spirit of the holidays, this becomes a job for the ladies of Covington!

The Purpose of Christmas by Rick Warren honors the significance and promise of this cherished holiday. Pastor Warren encourages readers to identify and confront what drains peace from their lives. Warren explains that the way to respond to these peace-robbers is to learn how to surrender to God's will and not feel defeated or discouraged when life does not go as planned. True peace of mind is found by having an unshakeable faith in God -- knowing that his empowering Spirit will guide his children through life's challenges. Beautifully written, The Purpose of Christmas stirs readers to honor the true significance of Christmas and to nurture God's gifts of love and peace in this world.

An Angel Appears to Joseph

When Joseph woke up, he did what the angel of the Lord had commanded him and took Mary home as his wife. But he did not consummate their marriage until she gave birth to a son. And he gave him the name Jesus. Matthew 1:24-25 (NIV)
